

Training Requirement

Employees require training in the safe use and management of oxy-fuel gases and equipment to comply with current Codes of Practice & Legislation and to meet the obligations of both employees & employers in respect of the H & S at Work Act 1974.

Objective

Comprehensive training leading to the award of an Oxy-fuel Gases Safety Passport Card demonstrating the delegate has been provided with, and has understood, the safety requirements for the safe use of the gases and equipment.

Oxy-Acetylene /Oxy-Propane Gas User Workshop Classroom Session

Interactive training on oxy-fuel gases and equipment with topics including: Operator behaviours, gas properties & hazards, cylinder identification & data, gas equipment, emergency procedures, cylinder storage, handling & transport, PPE, Legislation & Codes of Practice.

Practical Session

Before use checks, regulator fitting & manual handling of cylinders, light up & shut down procedures.

Certification

PGS Certificate of Achievement
Gas Safety Passport Card valid 3 years

Onsite	Webinar	Blended
Face to face classroom and practical instruction at your location*	Trainer led – real time session, allows delegate interaction with Q&A. Practical demonstration included	e-Learning course supplemented by onsite practical instruction
Classroom 3.5hrs	Classroom 3.5hrs	1-.15hrs learner dependant
Practical 1.5 hrs approx. Max 2 session 4 delegates per session	Trainer led practical demonstration supported by Video 1hr	Onsite practical module 2hrs. Max 3 sessions per day with up to 4 delegates*
£895 plus £85 per learner	£895 plus £85 per learner	From £50pp Plus £895 for onsite practical
Maximum of 8 delegates	Maximum of 12 delegates	Unlimited e-Learners Max 12 onsite
Scheduled at customer request. Interactive trainer led session with practical demonstration on your equipment.	Scheduled at customer request, uses remote voting technology to engage learners. Onsite practical session available on request*	Train at your convenience. Interactive and accessible course

Onsite elements are only available where our Covid-19 safety guidelines can be met

Proactive Gas Safety Ltd
4 Mere View Barn, Park Lane, Pickmere, Cheshire WA16 0LG
Tel: 01606 872864 e-mail: admin@pgstraining.com

Onsite Training Facilities Required

Classroom sessions:

Suitable training room equipped with a screen or monitor and electrical supply

Practical sessions:

Access to Oxy-Acetylene /Oxy-Propane gas equipment at a rate of 1 per 4 delegates for the gas user workshop

- Delegates wishing to undertake manual handling must have available appropriate PPE: Safety goggles, gloves, footwear, flame proof overalls

Optional EAL Awarding Organisation Certification.

EAL (Excellence Achievement Learning Ltd)

PGS has been independently verified by EAL as a provider of Compressed and Cryogenic Gases Safety workshops. PGS training delivery, assessment, quality assurance, customer support documentation and procedures have been found to meet their exacting standards. This accreditation enables PGS to offer the option of:

- Level 3 Award RQF (Regulatory Qualification Framework).
- 2 Total Credits (Ofqual registration 600/1433/7)
- An Unrivalled level of Gas Safety Qualification only available through PGS
- £75 per delegate

This proposal relates to the ticked gas/gas usage; an alternative proposal may be required if incorrect:

For further information or to book training please contact:

Proactive Gas Safety Ltd
T: 01606 872864